Here's The Hard Truth

Your leads won't tell you why they didn't buy... they just leave.

You're left guessing what went wrong. Why do some leads buy and others don't? While you're trying to figure it out, you keep spending money bringing in more leads, only to lose them for the same reasons... Even worse, you increase your marketing budget to compensate for the shortfall.

"What he shared will significantly reduce costs in our business"

"Let me just say that Jess and I spent an hour with Mario today, and I can honestly say to everyone that what he shared will significantly reduce costs in our business. You need to do whatever you can (cancel all plans!) to get on his stuff. Even if he shared 1/4 of what he shared with me. Mario, you are an absolute legend."
